

CALL FOR PROPOSALS IS OPEN

Submission deadline is January 15, 2019.

Help shape the SEPSEA 2019 program! SEPSEA and the REACH Program are looking for presenters who can explore innovative topics, highlight the latest trends, and discuss best practices in inclusive postsecondary education for students with intellectual and/or development disabilities (IDD).

The 2019 Conference Committee seeks proposals that:

- Engage learners and demonstrate application to the work of session attendees
- Are supported by researched
- Contain new ideas and stimulate productive discussion
- Focus on full inclusion in postsecondary education for people with IDD

FAQ

How do you choose which proposals to accept?

Successful proposals provide professional and educational contributions to SEPSEA members and their colleagues with a focus on truly inclusive practices. Content must contribute to the continuing education needs of professionals involved in postsecondary education for students with IDD, be relevant to the changing profession, and contribute to the knowledge of the community.
